Searching for trade marks

- Why search for existing trade marks?
 - To maintain peaceful coexistence on the market
 - To protect your own trade marks against similar marks
- Why might it be difficult?
 - Different sources and formats
 - Different languages
 - Some signs may not be registered

Searching using TMview

- All information in one search tool:
 - information from national offices, EUIPO and WIPO
 - trade marks registered at national, EU and international level
 - in many EU languages
- Two search formats:
 - quick search
 - advanced search

The screenshot displays the TMview website interface. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, About, News, Contact, Help, FAQ, Tutorials, and Enquiries. A search bar is prominently featured with 'Find term' and 'Advanced search' buttons. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'What is TMview?' explaining the tool's purpose and availability; 'How can TMview help you?' detailing its uses; and 'Trade mark offices' listing various national and international offices with their respective codes and names. A world map highlights the geographical distribution of these offices. The left sidebar contains 'Share with a friend', 'Add TMview to my favourites', 'News' (with recent updates from Germany and the Czech Republic), and 'Office information' (showing 24808422 trade marks).

TMview: quick search and advanced search functions

eSearch Plus: advanced search

On the left side, under "Add search criteria from below", there are three sections:

- Trade mark information: Trade mark representation, Trade mark number, Trade mark name, Trade mark type, Trade mark basis, Trade mark description, Reference, Recordal number, Trade mark status (EUTM), Trade mark status (IR), Acquired distinctiveness, Nature of the mark.
- Trade mark classification: Vienna Classification, Nice Classification, Goods and services, Publication section.
- Dates: Filing date.

The "Search criteria" section on the right includes a "Sort results by" dropdown set to "Trade mark number". Below this, there are two criteria added:

- Trade mark number: contains [input field]
- Trade mark name: contains [input field]

The criteria are connected by an "and" operator. At the bottom of the search criteria section are buttons for "Clear criteria", "Reset to default", and "Search".

Two callout boxes are present: "Additional criteria" points to the left-hand menu, and "Filters" points to the search criteria input fields.
